

1.125 – Fall 2021
FAQ / Syllabus

1. Who teaches this class?

Instructor	Email
John Williams	jrwm@mit.edu
Abel Sanchez	doval@mit.edu
Aramael Pena-Cantara	aramael@mit.edu

2. When does 1.125 lecture meet, and what do I need to bring to class?

Days	Hours	Location
Tuesday	2:30-4:00pm	Zoom
Thursday	2:30-4:00pm	Zoom

All classes are active learning sessions. Please procure a laptop computer for every class. We allow students to miss at most two Lecture sessions (and in class exercises). In case of extenuating circumstances, please contact the staff.

A typical lesson will be 2x 45 min sessions. Session 1 – Technology Hello World demo + hands-on in class activity. Session 2 – Business view – Book/video + team-based discussion

3. When do recitations meet?

There are no separate recitations, if you need help, please contact us at office hours.

4. Do I need a laptop computer? How do I get one?

Laptop computers are required for class participation, in all lecture sessions. Please use your own laptop if you own one. A laptop with at least 1 GB of memory running Windows 7, Windows 10, Mac OSX or Linux is needed. A limited number of loaner laptop computers are available; please contact IS&T to request one at <http://ist.mit.edu/services/hardware/lcp/form>. You may also share a laptop if necessary.

5. How do I get support or help with my loaner laptop?

Laptop Support: 617-253-1101 or helpdesk@mit.edu. Call or email to arrange a time.

6. What is the 1.125 grading policy?

Description	% Of Grade
Homework Sets	30%
Active Learning	10%
Project	60%

Assessment is based on Active Learning (AL) and Project Based Learning (PBL). There are no quizzes or final exam.

7. What if I'm a cross-registered student (Harvard, Wellesley, Tufts, others)?

If you are cross-registered, please email the Head TA as soon as possible.

8. Is there a final exam?

No
